ABOUT NKF

NKF strives to be an advocate and integrator for kidney health and holistic care for the community, by the community. While supporting kidney failure patients with quality dialysis treatment and integrated care, its greater mission lies in preventing or delaying kidney failure.

More than 300,000 people in Singapore suffer from chronic kidney disease, and many more remain undiagnosed due to its silent symptoms. Kidney failure cases continue to rise at an alarming rate in Singapore with about six people diagnosed every day, a three-fold increase from two decades ago. NKF aims to arrest this disturbing trend by focusing on upstream education and prevention – in collaboration with the community at large, schools and its partners in the healthcare ecosystem, to help people understand the importance of leading a healthy lifestyle.

NKF supports about 5,500 patients and beneficiaries, some 60% of the total dialysis patient population in Singapore, by providing quality dialysis treatment and integrated care to meet patients' physical, nutritional, and psychosocial needs. Through NKF's mission of Giving Life & Hope, NKF empowers patients to take ownership of their medical condition to lead fulfilling lives and contribute to the society.

MESSAGE BY GUEST-OF-HONOUR

I congratulate NKF for receiving the President's Certificate of Commendation (COVID-19). NKF has been doing good work for many years. Since its inception in 1969, it has not only saved over 12,000 lives but also made an immeasurable impact on the broader renal landscape.

While the peak of the pandemic may be over, the unwavering dedication displayed by the NKF staff must be recognised. They tirelessly worked round the clock and went above and beyond their call of duty during the challenging times of the pandemic.

I am also heartened that 2 NKF nurses recently received the MOH's Nurses' Merit Awards for their outstanding performance and contributions, and the head of the nursing received the highest accolade in the nursing profession - the President's Award for Nurses. These achievements reflect the remarkable expertise and dedication within the nursing team at NKF. Well done, NKF!

Nonetheless, the tough work of stemming the rise of kidney failure persists. With Singapore facing a rapidly ageing population, age-related chronic diseases are a major cause of kidney failure. Our nation spends a shocking $300 million on dialysis treatments every year for over 9,000 patients. NKF alone shoulders the care responsibility of about 60% of this dialysis population with limited resources, while addressing the diverse and complex care needs of its patients. It is critical to save more people from teetering on the brink of a lifelong and burdensome dialysis journey. Therefore, NKF is urging everyone to take proactive steps towards adopting healthy lifestyle habits and go for kidney screening when necessary.

I encourage everyone to continue supporting NKF in its treatment and preventive efforts, contribute resources to help patients suffering from kidney failure, stay healthy and inspire others to be advocates of good kidney health.

I wish NKF the best in fulfilling its mission of Giving Life & Hope for many years to come.

Professor S. Jayakumar
Former Deputy Prime Minister and Senior Minister

MESSAGE BY CHAIRMAN

My heartfelt thanks to all our valued sponsors, donors and partners for your continued support once again as NKF organises Swing For Hope for the third year, and to Professor S. Jayakumar for gracing our event.

When patients are first diagnosed, the burden they carry is a huge one. Not just physically, but also financially and emotionally. It is NKF's mission to ensure that no patients will be deprived of access to dialysis when needed. Without subsidy and support, dialysis treatment can cost a patient more than $2,000 a month. This is a daunting amount, especially for low-income families. Thanks to the support from generous donors like you, 77% of NKF patients pay $50 or less, and almost half of our patients are fully subsidised.

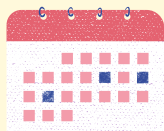

In NKF's Future Forward 2030 plan, we want to engage a two-engine strategy in helping patients and the greater community. Engine 1 is our short-term strategy – we strive to do things better and more efficiently for our patients. To further improve their quality of life for our patients beyond dialysis, NKF has developed a comprehensive renal rehabilitation programme for patients to learn to take charge of their health and in turn, enhance their sense of autonomy, empowerment and self-worth.

At the same time, we cannot forget that we are facing an impending kidney tsunami and rely just on Engine 1. The rate of kidney failure in Singapore has risen three-fold over the last 2 decades to 6 new cases a day at present. With more than 300,000 people suffering from chronic kidney disease, and possibly 200,000 remaining unaware and undiagnosed, our medium- to longer-term Engine 2 strategy focuses on upstream, robust preventive efforts to help people understand the importance of leading a healthy lifestyle and undergoing regular kidney screening to prevent and detect early stages of chronic kidney disease.

You can also play a part by advocating for good kidney health and preventing chronic kidney disease, first by taking good care of your own health, then influencing others to do the same. Alone, NKF cannot stem the tide of the kidney tsunami, but together, with the support of not only donors, but also volunteers, partners and supporters, we can.

Mr Arthur Lang
Chairman
The National Kidney Foundation
