

Day 1 - 16 May 2026 (Saturday)

Time	Programme
7.30am	Registration
	Welcome & Opening
8.30am	Welcome Address Mr Ang Hao Yao Chairman, The National Kidney Foundation
8.35am	Opening Address Professor Kenneth Mak Director-General of Health, Ministry of Health
	Keynote & Plenary 1
8.45am	Hong Kong's PD-First Policy: Lessons, Impact, and the Way Forward Dr Wong Sze Ho Sunny Chief of Service & Head of Nephrology, United Christian Hospital Chairman, Central Renal Committee, Hospital Authority, Hong Kong
9.25am	Navigating Kidney Supportive Care in Singapore: Challenges and Opportunities Dr Frank Brennan Consultant, Palliative Care Medicine, St George Hospital, Sydney
10.05am	Morning Tea Break / Poster Viewing / Networking
	Symposium 1: Prevention
10.50am	Haemodialysis Complications in the Community: Challenges, Trends & Prevention Strategies for Nurses	Mr Maynard Urmatan Nurse Educator, Nursing Services The National Kidney Foundation
11.10am	Managing Haemodialysis Complications in the Community: Clinical Challenges, Timely Interventions & Integrated Care	Dr Timothy Koh Senior Consultant, Renal Medicine Tan Tock Seng Hospital
11.30am	Caring Beyond Dialysis: Preventing Complications Through Allied Support	Mr Travis Wong Senior Exercise Specialist, Allied Health Services The National Kidney Foundation
11.50am	Q & A
12.05pm	Lunch / Poster Viewing / Networking / Lunch Symposium
1.05pm	Lunch Symposium (TBC)
1.35pm	Q & A
	Symposium 2: Sustainability
1.50pm	Enhancing a Sustainable Primary Care Model for CKD Management	Dr Koh Zhong Wei, Jeremy, National Healthcare Group Polyclinics
2.10pm	Protecting the Vulnerable: Sustainable Vaccination Strategies for Kidney Patients in the Community	A/Prof Limin Wijaya Senior Consultant, Infectious Diseases Singapore General Hospital
2.30pm	Nutritional Strategies for Kidney Disease: How Plant-Based Diets Can Improve Health and Mobility	Ms Gladys Wong Hooi Chuan Senior Principal Dietitian Khoo Teck Puat Hospital
2.50pm	Q & A
3.05pm	Afternoon Tea Break / Poster Viewing / Networking
	Plenary 2 & 3
3.50pm	Unlocking the Genetic Causes of Kidney Diseases in Singapore: Implications for Diagnosis and Treatment A/Prof Ng Kar Hui Senior Consultant, Department of Renal Medicine National University Hospital
4.30pm	Balancing Nutrition in Kidney Disease: Exploring the DASH Diet and Other Evidence-Based Approaches Ms Chow Pek Yee Principal Dietitian and Head, Department of Nutrition & Dietetics Khoo Teck Puat Hospital
5.10pm	End of Day 1

Day 2 - 17 May 2026 (Sunday)

7.30am	Registration
	Symposium 3: Kidney Supportive Care
8.30am	Symptom Management in Kidney Failure – A Brief Overview	Dr Frank Brennan Consultant, Palliative Care Medicine St George Hospital, Sydney
8.50am	Optimising Cardiovascular Health and Functional Safety in Kidney Supportive Care: A Nursing Perspective	Ms Koh Pei Si Advanced Practice Nurse, General Medicine National University Health System
9.10am	Talking with Heart: Psychological Support in Kidney Care	Ms Janelle Chan Independent Medical Social Worker
9.30am	Q & A
9.45am	Morning Tea Break / Poster Viewing / Networking
	Plenary 4 & 5
10.30am	Equitable Kidney Care in Action: Bridging Clinical Excellence and Community Support Dr Wong Sze Ho Sunny Chief of Service & Head of Nephrology, United Christian Hospital Chairman, Central Renal Committee, Hospital Authority, Hong Kong
11.10am	21st Century Kidney Care: AI and Evolving Clinical Practice Prof Josephine Chow Director of Strategy & Partnerships, South Western Sydney Local Health District
11.50am	Closure and Award Presentation
12.00pm	End of Day 2	